The 2017 Vintage

— Château Fougas Maldoror —

Gold Medal Concours de Bordeaux 2018:

Score 90

The Maldoror 2017 from Château Fougas offers attractive red cherry, crusted strawberry and orange zest aroma on what you might call a “playful” nose. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins. A little oak needs to subsume but there is a lowly silky finish and quite a persistent after taste. A modern style Côtes de Bourg on that is well crafted.

Neal MARTIN – Febr.2020

Score 89-91 / 100

"Vibrant nose, pleasant fresh fruit, smoke, spices. Full and round mouth, a beautiful tannic frame with juice and structure. The tannins tighten a little in the final but the time will round the whole. A very beautiful vintage. A sure value »

Rating 90-91 (15.25+)

"The nose is fruity, a bit tight and offers a fine delicacy as well as intensity. There are notes of blackberry, raspberry, pepper Timut and fine touches of blackcurrant, currant jelly associated with subtle tips of toasted, sweet spices and a discreet tip of flowers (in the background) and subtle vanilla tips (in the background). The palate is fruity, balanced, finely straight / linear and offers tension, roundness, fat, good definition / structure, precision as well as a fine juiciness and fresh / juicy fruit. On the palate this wine expresses notes of blackcurrant, black cherry and slightly more blackberry associated with touches of juicy red berries, zan, spices and subtle tips of toasted, coffee and vanilla. The tannins are well led and slightly grainy on the finish. Good length ".
